Step 2: Most Points Win - The male and female elite athlete with the most points at the end of the season earns the title of XTERRA Asia-Pacific Tour Champion and earns $2,000 in Tour bonus money. If there is a tie in points, the tie-breaker will be the person with the most wins. If still tied after counting wins, the person finishing highest in the most recent race where both competed. If no head-to-head exists, tie-breaker goes to the person finishing highest in most recent race.

2017 XTERRA Asia-Pacific Championship: It is not necessary for elites to qualify to race at the XTERRA Asia-Pacific Championship, which will double as the XTERRA Malaysia Championship on April 29 in Langkawi. This is a one day award as opposed to the Tour title which counts all races. In Langkawi, the top overall male/female elite finisher, regardless of nationality, will be honored as the XTERRA Asia-Pacific Champion. The top Malaysian male/female elite will be named the XTERRA Malaysia Champion.
