

2014 XTERRA Physically Challenged Program Details:

1.1 Rules:

- All 2014 XTERRA America Tour events are sanctioned by USA Triathlon (USAT) the National Governing Body of multisport in the United States. As such all events and athletes are subject to the rules and regulation set forth by the USAT. Any/all details are available in the USAT Rule Book at www.usatriathlon.org.
- Refer to the USAT Rule Book section: USA Triathlon Rule Modifications for Physically Challenged Athletes for specific detail.
- In addition – all athletes are subject to the rules and regulations set forth in the 2014 XTERRA America Tour Rules and 2014 XTERRA Competition Rules documents².
- Ignorance of the rules is not admitted as an excuse for violations.

1.2 Physically Challenged Athletes:

- Any physically challenged athlete, as defined by the USAT Rule Book, may compete in any XTERRA event.
- Physically challenged athletes do NOT have to compete in the XTERRA PC Division
- Physically challenged athletes may choose to compete as an XTERRA Age Group athlete.
- At the time of the start of their first race of the 2014 XTERRA season athletes must decide whether to race as a Physically Challenged Athlete or as an Age Group athlete. Athletes will remain in this Division, score points, get ranked, and be invited to the XTERRA USA Championship by this Division and for the duration of the 2014 XTERRA season. Athletes may not switch back and forth during the season.

1.3 XTERRA Age and PC Age Groups:

- For the 2014 XTERRA Season – all athletes will compete based on their age on December 31, 2014. This is known as your XTERRA Age. It is also known as your USAT Age.
- An athlete will use his/her XTERRA Age throughout the entire 2014 XTERRA Season.
- For the 2014 XTERRA Season physically challenged athletes will compete in the following Age Groups: 15-39 and 40+.
