2017 XTERRA PAN AMERICA TOUR RULES FOR AMATEURS

Step 1: Identify your Age Group – How old you are on December 31, 2017 determines your age group. We have divisions for men and women 15-19, 20-24, 25-29, 30-34, 35-39, 40-44, 45-49, 50-54, 55-59, 60-64, 65-69, 70-74, 75-79 (m), 80+ (m), and Physically Challenged. At the discretion of the race director athletes with an XTERRA age under 15 may participate, but they will not earn points.

Step 2: Race and Score – Enter as many races as you want and score points by finishing in the top 15 of your age group. There are four 100-point scale “Gold” races and the remainder are 75-point scale “Silver” races. Find the most current schedule of events at www.xterrapanam.com. The season is from March-to-September, 2017.

Gold races: Oak Mountain, Beaver Creek, Mexico, Pan America Championship

Silver races: Argentina, Chile, Costa Rica, Brazil, Victoria, Dominican Republic

Silver events will award 26 Maui slots as follows:

- One to the first-place person in each age group noted above.
- Slot will roll down among the top 3 if the first-place person declines.

2017 XTERRA Pan America Championship: It is not necessary to qualify, nor be from the Pan America region, to race at the XTERRA Pan America Championship, which will double as the XTERRA USA Championship on September 16 in Utah. This is a one day award as opposed to the Tour Championship which counts all races.

In Utah, the top overall finisher, regardless of nationality, in each age group will be honored as the XTERRA Pan America Champion. The top American in each age group will be named the XTERRA USA Champion.
